

COMPLAINT FOR CUSTODY BY A THIRD PARTY

HOW A THIRD PARTY GAINS CUSTODY OF A CHILD OR CHILDREN

If you are related to the children as follows: grandparent, great-grandparent, aunt, uncle, great-aunt, great-uncle, sibling, adoptive parent, then the Court can award custody to you if it finds that is in the best interests of the child(ren). The law which applies to this situation is O.C.G.A. § 19-7-1(b.1), which provides:

(b.1) Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) of this Code section or any other law to the contrary, in any action involving the custody of a child between the parents or either parent and a third party limited to grandparent, great-grandparent, aunt, uncle, great aunt, great uncle, sibling, or adoptive parent, parental power may be lost by the parent, parents, or any other person if the Court hearing the issue of custody, in the exercise of its sound discretion and taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case, determines that an award of custody to such third party is for the best interest of the child or children and will best promote their welfare and happiness. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that it is in the best interest of the child or children for custody to be awarded to the parent or parents of such child or children, but this presumption may be overcome by a showing that an award of custody to such third party is in the best interest of the child or children. The sole issue for determination in any such case shall be what is in the best interest of the child or children.

If you are not related to the children as listed above, the decision concerning child custody is governed by the “parental rights and fitness doctrine,” which holds that the parent(s) will lose custody only if the parents have already lost parental control by statute (O.C.G.A. § 19-7-1(b)), or, in exceptional cases, if they are proved to be unfit.

This is extremely difficult to prove, and you are strongly encouraged to retain an attorney.

O.C.G.A. § 19-7-1(b) provides:

(b) Parental power shall be lost by:

- (1) Voluntary contract releasing the right to a third person;
- (2) Consent to the adoption of the child by a third person;
- (3) Failure to provide necessities for the child or abandonment of the child;
- (4) Consent to the child's receiving the proceeds of his own labor, which consent shall be revocable at any time;
- (5) Consent to the marriage of the child, who thus assumes inconsistent responsibilities; or
- (6) Cruel treatment of the child.

Notice To: Employer or any other person, private entity, Federal or State Government, or any unit of local government providing or administering income due to Defendant

Re: Income Deduction Order

DATE: _____

Attached you will find an Income Deduction Order. Please read this Order carefully and follow the instructions as written. If you have any questions you should contact your attorney. Employers are required by law to deduct from income due and payable an employee the amount designated by the Court to meet support obligations. Income includes wages, salary, bonuses, commissions, compensation as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, disability benefits, annuities and retirement benefits, pensions, dividends, royalties, or any other payment to an employee. Failure to deduct the amount designated by the Court makes the employer liable for the amount that should have been deducted, plus costs, interest and reasonable Attorney's fees.

Payments must begin no later than the first pay period after fourteen (14) days following the postmark of the notice. You are required to forward to the person or entity specified in the Income Deduction Order within two (2) days after each payment date the amount deducted from the employee's income and a statement as to whether the amount forwarded totally or partially satisfies the periodic amount specified in the Income Deduction Order.

This deduction has priority over all other legal processes under Georgia law pertaining to the same income and the payment required by the Income Deduction Order. It is a complete defense against any claims of the employee or the employee's creditors as to the sum paid.

Employers must continue to deduct the child support amount and send it to the person or entity specified in the Income Deduction Order until further notice by the Court or until the income is no longer provided to the employee. In the event the income is no longer provided, the employer is required to notify the person or entity specified in the Income Deduction Order immediately of such and to give the employee's last known address and to provide a name and address of any new employer of this employee if known. FAILURE TO DO THIS WILL RESULT IN A CIVIL PENALTY BEING IMPOSED, NOT TO EXCEED $250.00 FOR THE FIRST VIOLATION OR $500.00 FOR A SUBSEQUENT VIOLATION.

Employers may not discharge an employee by reason of the entry of an Income Deduction Order. If an employee is discharged because of this reason, A FINE OF NOT MORE THAN $250.00 FOR THE FIRST VIOLATION AND $500.00 FOR A SUBSEQUENT VIOLATION WILL BE IMPOSED AGAINST THE EMPLOYER.

Employers should contact their attorney if more than one Income Deduction Order is received against the same employee.

Employers may send a single payment if multiple employees have Income Deduction Orders to pay to the same depository provided the amount attributed to each employee is identified.

An employer may collect up to $25.00 against the employee's income to reimburse for the administrative costs of the first income deduction and up to $3.00 for each subsequent income deduction.
